propriation of $13,891,660 for aviation has stimulated widespread interest throughout the country and the aero-rautical branch of the War Department. is buzzing with work which it is expected will be incidental to placing the United tates on an efficient basis with regard its aerial services.

Officers explain that all signs point to an awakening in the country to the importance of this new branch. It is said at such big concerns as the General tectric Company, the Westinghouse tectric Company, the Bethlehem Steel Company and others are giving consideration to the possibilities of extending their enormous facilities to the developor of aviation for the Government. with a view perhaps to putting the United States among the leading nations

The chief problem now is understood to be the development of a 300 horse-power motor, more efficient than any now in existence, and the alignment of important big business in cooperation with the War Department would, it is said, greatly expedite the solution of this

The tentative plan is for twelve fliers constitute each of the twelve air madrons of the militia division on the bounders of the minta division on the border. This would mean considerably more than twelve machines for each squadron, as each machine is estimated to wear out four times a year. The plan is based, however, on keeping twelve machines in the air at all times, and on this basis the War Demarkment. and on this basis the War Departmen will proceed to supply the accessories, spare parts, motor trucks for hauling the machines, hangars, &c.

WILSON'S SHIP BILL STRIKES HARD GOING

Republican Senators Opposing It, Backed by Many Democrats.

Caucus Challenges Menace to Delay Adjournment Till Snow Flies.

WASHINGTON, July 5 .- The Administration Ship Purchase bill, which passed the House and is now in Senate Committee, is in a bad way. The Republican Senators backed by a strong Democratic support have served notice on the friends of the bill that efforts to pass it at this session will probably prolong the session "until snow flies." The situation is so desperate from the viewpoint of the friends of the bill in the Senate that it led to the calling of two party caucuses or conferences of ators on the Democratic side to-day, "and if the President and other friends by trickery. of the bill insist upon passing it at this session of Congress we are likely to be ago she answered an advertisement ask bridge carpenters, timber men, from work here till snow flies."
